1. The ho - li - ness of God Most High, which He a - lone may claim,
2. The ho - li - ness of God's sure word brings forth His per - fect end,
3. The ho - li - ness of Christ, the Lamb, a - dorned in flesh, at - tained
4. The ho - li - ness of Him Who dwells in us, Christ's cho - sen bride,
5. A - scribe to God the glo - ry due His great and wor - thy name,

6

Gives splen - dor to His maj - es - ty and vin - di - cates His name.
Re - veal - ing truth and right - eous - ness, ex - pos - ing eve - ry sin.
The wit - ness of His Fath - er's joy with plea - sure un - re - strained.
Bears wit - ness that we're born of God and to the flesh have died.
Pre - sent - ing Him your sac - ri - fice, your bo - dy void of shame.

11

The es - sence of His na - ture's light, the cause for fear and dread,
By ho - li - ness His might - y word shall reign for - ev - er pure
In ho - li - ness this Right - eous One made sin for us was slain;
In ho - li - ness the Spir - it speaks to com - fort, grieve, and guide
Con - duct your life in ho - li - ness; let no - thing there im - pede,

16

His ho - li - ness shall right - ly judge the liv - ing and the dead.
Es - tab - lish - ing His faith - ful - ness with prom - is - es se - cure.
Once sanc - ti - fied through His shed blood, we're freed from sin's strong chains.
That we might bear His right - eous fruit and in His strength a - bide.
And put to death your sin - ful flesh with all its thoughts and deeds.
