

Stand Strong and Firmly in the Lord

Joseph Kincaid

Joseph Kincaid

1. Stand strong and firm - ly in the Lord with strength from His great might,
2. Em - brace God's all - suf - fi - cient truth, hold fast to His sure Word,
3. Se - cure your stance in Christ a - lone, the gos - pel of your peace;
4. En - gage your mind on things a - bove where Christ your Sav - ior reigns,
5. En - treat your God through Christ, your Rock, with Spir - it - guid - ed prayers

6

And put your bat - tle ar - mor on, God's ar - mor of pure light.
That you, now freed, might live in deed the gos - pel which you've heard.
With con - fi - dence in His great love your cares and fears will cease.
Whose pres - ence is your life and joy, Whose glo - ry is your gain.
That bold - ly rise to seek His grace for all the saints to share.

11

We wres - tle not with flesh and blood, but hosts from dark do - main,
Sur - round your soul with right - eous - ness, the Spir - it's work di - vine,
Stead - fast in faith, God's gra - cious gift, you're shield - ed to with - stand
Un - sheath and wield God's Ho - ly Word, the Spir - it's conq - 'ring sword,
Wor - ship the Lamb Whose blood pro - cured your path to vic - to - ry,

16

Whose e - vil schemes can - not de - ceive those armed for Christ's cam - paign.
That flesh - ly lusts might not im - pede your fruit in Christ the Vine.
The e - vil one who flees from all who trust in God's right hand.
For Sa - tan's snares all fail when met with: "Thus says God, the Lord."
For you, in Him, may o - ver - come and stand tri - um - phant - ly.
