

The Lord, My Helper

1. Lord, I come in full sur - ren - der; at Your feet I hum - bly bow.
 2. Search my heart and pierce my spir - it; let Your Word un - veil my sin.
 3. May the world's vain fleet - ing pleas - ures not al - lure me from Your way.
 4. Light my path, pro - vide Your coun - sel, as I seek Your Ho - ly Word.
 5. As I stand a - midst the bat - tle, may Your Spir - it be my guide.

Know my thoughts and my in - ten - tions; my own will do not al - low.
 Bring to mind my faults and fail - ures so con - fess - ion may be - gin.
 Fill my life full of Your beau - ty; may I long for You each day.
 May I wait and try the spir - its, till I know Your voice was heard.
 Set my sights on things e - ter - nal; hold my feet, a - vert my slide.

Let me cite Your won - drous mer - cies and ex - tol Your match - less grace.
 Let my love for You, my Sa - vior, draw my heart to faith - ful - ness.
 Let my zeal for You, my Por - tion, be so strong, so true and bright.
 Let my hope in Your sure Scrip - tures be my peace, my joy and rest.
 Let my trust in You, my For - tress, be the Tower in which I hide.

Help me, Lord, I need Your wis - dom: let me hear and then em - brace.
 Help me, Lord, I need Your pow - er: so I walk in right - eous - ness.
 Help me, Lord, I need Your pres - ence: may You be my chief de - light.
 Help me, Lord, I need Your lead - ing: for to do what You deem best.
 Help me, Lord, I need Your cour - age in Your ser - vice to a - bide.
