

What Word Divine!

1. The Word of God, cre - a - tion's might, Who formed the earth and brought forth light,
 2. The Word of God, per - fec - tion's best, Flaw - less and sure in ev' - ry test—
 3. The Word of God, re - demp - tion's plan, Re - solved be - fore the world be - gan,
 4. The Word of God, the gos - pel's call, Pro - claimed through - out the world to all,
 5. The Word of God, the Spir - it's sword, A right - eous judge sent from the Lord,

6
 Stretched out the sky and hedged the land— Plants sprout - ed forth at His com - mand.
 It has no fault and can - not fail; It will en - dure and shall pre - vail.
 He left His Fa - ther's throne on high To put on flesh that He might die.
 It will at - tain God's per - fect ends And shall suc - ceed as He in - tends.
 To dwell with - in His cho - sen bride, To con - quer sin and be our guide.

11
 Sun, moon, and stars be - gan to shine At His de - cree. What works di - vine!
 God's cho - sen men were moved to sign His pre - cious words. What truth di - vine!
 He laid it down, His life sub - lime, For sins of men. What love di - vine!
 It lifts up Christ, the one true vine, Who saves from sin. What grace di - vine!
 It gen - ders life and will in - cline Our hearts to God. What gift di - vine!

16
 Vast life ap - peared when He gave call, Pure and com - plete be - fore the fall.
 His Ho - ly Word faith - ful and pure, For - ev - er set in heav'n se - cure.
 He rose a - gain up from the grave Tri - um - phant - ly with might to save.
 Its truth is heard and seen as light When its good news and faith u - nite.
 It is e - nough for ev - ry need, Our dai - ly bread and hope in - deed.